

Recording of Webinar 19/09/13 'What parent carer forums need to know about the law to influence the provision of post 16 education and post 16 transport' for members of parent carer forums and those who work with them

Please note;

The following video provides general information in relation to the law affecting disabled children to help parent forums in their work. It cannot and should not be relied on as legal advice in relation to any individual case and no warranty is given that the information is correct or up-to-date. Forums or families with specific legal concerns should contact specialist lawyers or advice organisations, including the Contact a Family Helpline

(free phone 0808 808 3555 9.30am to 5pm Mon – Fri)

Please note that the original webinar broadcast included a webcam image of Steve Broach. Due to technical issues this is not included in the webinar recording. However the links to the documents that Steve refers to are included on the Contact a Family website at; www.cafamily.org.uk/what-we-do/parent-carer-participation/learning-and-events-for-forums/
