

Webinar Recording

'Using the law to challenge cuts to short break services' with Steve Broach

Please Note; The following recorded webinar provides general information in relation to the law affecting disabled children to help parent forums in their work. It cannot and should not be relied on as legal advice in relation to any individual case and no warranty is given that the information is correct or up to date. Forums or families with specific legal concerns should contact specialist lawyers or advice organisations, including the Contact a Family Helpline (free phone 0808 808 3555 9.30am to 5pm Mon – Fri)

Please click on the link below to view the recording of this webinar, this link will open a window in YouTube.

<http://youtu.be/3YqiVZ0iai4>

Please see below materials that participants may like to have to hand, in either online or hard copy versions, whilst viewing the webinar.

EDCM short breaks resource which Steve drafted with Alex Rook.

<http://www.edcm.org.uk/campaigns-and-policy/short-breaks/short-breaks-and-the-law/legal-resource-for-parent-carers>

Alternatively a pdf version can be download here:

<http://www.edcm.org.uk/media/159965/Challenging-cuts-to-short-break-services-final.pdf>

1. The Breaks for Carers of Disabled Children Regulations 2011, available here:

<http://www.legislation.gov.uk/uksi/2011/707/made> (you can download the .pdf from the link)

2. The government guidance which provides background on short breaks and the legal duty:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/short-breaks-for-carers-of-disabled-children>

If you have any questions in relations to this webinar, please contact Helen Reid at helen.reid@cafamily.org.uk