Safeguarding adults at risk policy – Northern Ireland

This policy applies to all paid staff and volunteers, including the Joint Leadership Team and the Board of Trustees, volunteers and sessional workers, agency staff, associates, students, or anyone else working on behalf of Contact.

Purpose of policy

- To protect adults at risk who receive, or whose families receive support, advice or services from Contact.
- To provide staff and volunteers with overarching principles that guide our approach to enable them to contribute to the prevention of abuse of adults at risk through raising awareness and providing a clear framework for action when abuse is suspected.

It is aimed at protecting the adult at risk and the worker, also recognising the risks involved in lone working.

Contact staff and volunteers will often find themselves in situations, either individually or collectively where they are meeting vulnerable adults e.g. through groups and workshops, parent forums, helpline enquiries and one to one support. If staff or volunteers have concerns that they are dealing directly with a vulnerable adult who might need support, then this policy will help shape how that concern can be addressed.

Legislation and guidance that underpin this policy

The Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults \(NI\) Order 2003 \(POCVA\) is there to prevent unsuitable people from working with vulnerable groups. The Order strengthens the existing system for checking people seeking work with children and vulnerable adults against lists maintained by the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety and by the Education Authority.

The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups \(NI\) Order 2007 as amended by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 defines 'regulated activity' with children and adults. Regulated activity is work which a barred person must not undertake.

In July 2015 the Adult Safeguarding Policy: Prevention and Protection in Partnership was introduced for all organisations working with, or providing services to, adults across the statutory, voluntary, community, independent and faith sectors. It has been jointly developed and published by the Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety (DHSSPS) and the Department of Justice (DOJ) on behalf of the Northern Ireland Executive. A key objective is to reduce the incidence of harm from abuse, exploitation or neglect of adults who are at risk in Northern Ireland; to provide them with effective support and, where necessary, protective responses and access to justice for victims and their families.

The Northern Ireland Adult Safeguarding Partnership (NIASP) and five Local Adult Safeguarding Partnerships (LASPs) were established under the Adult Safeguarding in Northern Ireland, Regional and Local Partnership Arrangements (2010). They are collaborative partnerships with a responsibility for adult safeguarding in Northern Ireland. The partnerships are tasked by DHSSPS, with the support of the DOJ, with the delivery of improved adult safeguarding outcomes by way of a strategic plan, operational policies and procedures and effective practice, which will be developed and implemented in accordance with this policy.

Local Authorities and organisations must:

- Encourage organisations to work collaboratively across sectors and on an inter-agency and multi-disciplinary basis, to introduce a range of preventative measures to promote an individual's capacity to keep themselves safe and to prevent harm occurring.
- Establish clear guidance for reporting concerns that an adult is, or may be, at risk of being harmed or in need of protection and how these will be responded to.
- Promote access to justice for adults at risk who have been harmed as a result of abuse, exploitation or neglect.
- Professionals should be aware information they have may be required as part of a criminal investigation. Therefore it is critical to ensure that any potential evidence that may be later required by the PSNI is not compromised.
- Any relevant person or organization must, under the Act provide information to Safeguarding Adult Boards if and when requested.

This policy should be read alongside Contact's policies, procedures and guidance on:

- Role of the Designated Safeguarding Officers (DSO) and safeguarding review group guidance.
- IT security and acceptable use policies.
- GDPR policy.
- Recruitment Policy and Procedure.

- Safer Recruitment Policy.
- Equality and Diversity Policy.
- Compliments and Complaints Policy.
- Whistleblowing Policy.
- Health and Safety Policy.
- Lone Working Policy and Procedure.
- Confidentiality Policy and Procedure.

Contact's responsibilities

Contact must ensure all staff, volunteers and anyone else working on behalf of Contact are aware of the Safeguarding Adults at Risk policy. All Contact staff are required to follow Contact's internal referral safeguarding procedures.

Contact will ensure that all staff and volunteers have had adequate training. This training is provided via e-learning. Additional revision e-learning should take place at least after every two years, this will be organised by HR. Freelance workers will be expected to provide updated proof of refresher training.

Additional process training may be provided by the Contact Designated Safeguarding Officers (DSO) for operational teams where appropriate. In addition, operational staff may access training through the local authority where they are based or through other appropriate national or local providers.

Contact's Board of Trustees review this policy annually. The Board has appointed a designated safeguarding lead who periodically meets with the safeguarding review team lead executive director.

Contact's other responsibilities are:

- To notify the appropriate agencies if abuse is identified or suspected.
- To ensure that all referrals to services contain all relevant information we have in relation to identified risk and vulnerability.
- Recruiting staff and volunteers safely ensuring all necessary checks are made, including through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) or nations equivalent.

Responsibilities of Contact employees, volunteers and other representatives:

- To be familiar with the safeguarding adults at risk policy and procedures.
- To take appropriate action in line with the Safeguarding Adult At Risk policy.
- To declare any existing or subsequent convictions. Failure to do so will be regarded as gross misconduct, possibly resulting in dismissal.

Support for those who report abuse

All those making a complaint or allegation or expressing concern, whether they be staff, volunteers, service users, carers or members of the general public, should be reassured that:

- They will be taken seriously.
- Their comments will usually be treated confidentially, but their concerns may be shared if they or others are at significant risk.
- Both staff and service users reporting abuse will be given support as needed.

The at risk adult has the right:

- To be made aware of this policy.
- To have alleged incidents recognised and taken seriously.
- To receive fair and respectful treatment throughout.
- To be involved in any process as appropriate.
- To receive information about the outcome.

Definition of adult at risk

Adult at risk of harm

An adult at risk of harm is a person aged 18 or over, whose exposure to harm through abuse, exploitation or neglect may be increased by their personal characteristics and/or life circumstances.

Personal characteristics may include, but are not limited to, age, disability, special educational needs, illness, mental or physical frailty or impairment of, or disturbance in, the functioning of the mind or brain. Life circumstances may include, but are not limited to, isolation, socio-economic factors and environmental living conditions.

Adult in need of protection

An 'adult in need of protection' is a person aged 18 or over, whose exposure to harm through abuse, exploitation or neglect may be increased by their:

A. personal characteristics and/or B. life circumstances

AND C) who is unable to protect their own well-being, property, assets, rights or other interests;

AND D) where the action or inaction of another person or persons is causing, or is likely to cause, him/her to be harmed.

In order to meet the definition of an 'adult in need of protection' either (A) or (B) must be present, in addition to both elements (C), and (D).

Definition of Abuse

“Abuse is the harming of another individual usually by someone who is in a position of power, trust or authority over that individual. The harm may be physical, psychological, or emotional or it may be directed at exploiting the vulnerability of the victim in more subtle ways (for example, through denying access to people who can come to the aid of the victim, or through misuse or misappropriation of his or her financial resources). The threat or use of punishment is also a form of abuse. In many cases, it is a criminal offence”

Types of Abuse

Physical abuse

- Bodily assaults resulting in injuries e.g., hitting, pushing, kicking, misuse of medication, restraint, inappropriate sanctions.
- Bodily impairment e.g., malnutrition, dehydration, failure to thrive.
- Medical/healthcare maltreatment.

Sexual abuse

- Rape, incest, acts of indecency, sexual assault.
- Sexual harassment or sexual acts to which the vulnerable adult has not consented or could not consent or was pressured into consenting.
- Sexual abuse might also include exposure to pornographic materials, being made to witness sexual acts and encompasses sexual harassment and non-contact abuse.

Psychological/emotional abuse includes:

- Including threats of harm, controlling, intimidation, coercion, harassment, verbal abuse, enforced isolation or withdrawal from services or supportive networks.
- Humiliation.
- Bullying, shouting, swearing.

Neglect

- Including ignoring medical or physical care needs, failure to provide access to appropriate health, social care or educational services.
- The withholding of the necessities of life, such as medication, adequate nutrition and heating.

Self-neglect

Types of self-neglect include:

- Lack of self-care to an extent that it threatens personal health and safety.
- Neglecting to care for one's personal hygiene, health or surroundings.

- Inability to avoid self-harm.
- Failure to seek help or access services to meet health and social care needs.
- Inability or unwillingness to manage one's personal affairs.

Financial or material

- Including theft, fraud, exploitation, pressure in connection with wills, property or inheritance or financial transactions, or the misuse or misappropriation of property, possessions or benefits.

Discriminatory abuse

Unequal treatment based on age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex or sexual orientation (known as 'protected characteristics' under the Equality Act 2010)

- Verbal abuse, derogatory remarks or inappropriate use of language related to a protected characteristic.
- Denying access to communication aids, not allowing access to an interpreter, signer, or lip-reader.
- Harassment or deliberate exclusion on the grounds of a protected characteristic
- Denying basic rights to healthcare, education, employment, and criminal justice relating to a protected characteristic.
- Substandard service provision relating to a protected characteristic.
- Including racist, sexist, or based on a person's disability, and other forms of harassment, slurs, or similar treatment.

Modern slavery

Modern Slavery is the exploitation of people who have been forced, deceived, or coerced into a life of labour and servitude. It is a crime hidden from society where victims are subjected to abuse, inhumane and degrading treatment. Examples of enslavement include:

- A person who is forced to work or serve – through fear and threats of violence.
- Is owned or controlled by an 'employer' who uses mental or physical abuse to exercise control.
- Dehumanised, treated as a commodity or bought and sold as 'property'.
- Being kept in substandard working/living conditions.
- Physically constrained or has restrictions placed on his/her freedom of movement.
- Modern Slavery is linked to Human Trafficking, but not all victims of modern slavery have necessarily been trafficked.

Female genital mutilation (FGM)

Female genital mutilation (FGM) is the partial or total removal of external female genitalia for non-medical reasons. It's also known as female circumcision or cutting.

Religious, social, or cultural reasons are sometimes given for FGM. However, FGM is abusive, dangerous and a criminal offence.

There are no medical reasons to carry out FGM. It doesn't enhance fertility and it doesn't make childbirth safer. It is used to control female sexuality and can cause severe and long-lasting damage to physical and emotional health.

Radicalisation

Radicalisation is a process by which an individual or group comes to adopt increasingly extreme political, social, or religious ideals and aspirations that reject or undermine the status quo or reject and/or undermine contemporary ideas and expressions of freedom of choice. Extremism is vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. It includes calls for the death of members of the British armed forces (HM Government, 2011).

The process of radicalisation may involve:

- Being groomed online or in person.
- Exploitation, including sexual exploitation.
- Psychological manipulation.
- Exposure to violent material and other inappropriate information.
- The risk of physical harm or death through extremist acts.

Vulnerability factors:

Anyone can be radicalised but there are some factors which may make a person more vulnerable. These include:

- Being easily influenced or impressionable.
- Having low self-esteem or being isolated.
- Feeling that rejection, discrimination or injustice is taking place in society.
- Experiencing community tension amongst different groups.
- Being disrespectful or angry towards family and peers.
- Having a strong need for acceptance or belonging.
- Experiencing grief such as loss of a loved one.

These factors will not always lead to radicalisation.

Domestic abuse

Domestic violence and abuse includes any incident or pattern of incidents of controlling, coercive or threatening behaviour, violence or abuse between those aged 16 or over who are or have been, intimate partners or family members regardless of gender or sexuality. It also includes so called 'honour' -based violence, female genital mutilation and forced marriage. Coercive or controlling behaviour is a core part of domestic violence.

Online abuse

Online is any type of abuse that happens on the web, whether through social networks, playing online games or using mobile phones.

Adults can be at risk of online abuse from people they know, as well as from strangers. Online abuse may be part of abuse that is taking place in the real world (for example bullying or grooming). Or it may be that the abuse only happens online (for example persuading children to take part in sexual activity online).

Abusers can contact adults at any time of the day or night, the abuse can come into safe places like their bedrooms, and images and videos can be stored and shared with other people.

Signs and symptoms of abuse

It is important to remember that a vulnerable adult may suffer or be at risk of suffering from one or more types of abuse and that abuse may take place on a single occasion or may occur repeatedly over time. There is no absolute criterion on which to rely when judging what constitutes significant harm.
