

Do you think we need national SEND standards?

What would make you accept the introduction of a list of schools that families can express a preference on?

Do you support the introduction of a new national framework of bandings and tariffs for funding matched to levels of need and provision?

Do you support mandatory mediation?

Do you think that setting a target that 90% of pupils must achieve expected levels of reading and writing at KS2 will make schools more inclusive?
